New Report: Engaging with Global Fund Regional Grants in Africa

Greetings from the Regional Platform for Communication and Coordination for Anglophone Africa, hosted by EANNASO.

We are pleased to share our latest research report, “You Just Find Things Happening in a Cloud Over Your Head”: How Civil Society and Community Groups are Engaging with Global Fund Regional Grants in Africa. While several studies have described civil society participation and community engagement in national-level Global Fund processes in Africa, few have sought to understand the extent to which these groups are able to engage at the regional level.

Our new report shares views and perspectives from 43 key informant interviews on how civil society and community stakeholders are engaging with Global Fund regional grants. The interviews were conducted in Botswana, Mozambique, Nigeria and Uganda. These four countries are included in nine out of the eleven regional grants in Anglophone Africa.

In this report you will find:

- Views and perspectives from 43 key informants, spanning 4 African countries and 9 regional grants.
- Key quotes and comments highlighted in call-out bubbles (for fast reading!).
- Five action points to improve civil society and community groups' engagement in regional grants in Africa.
- Annexes complete with tables and maps of the 11 regional grants covering Anglophone African countries, including Principal Recipients, amounts granted, countries covered, scope of the grants and key contact details.
