WHAT IS THE GLOBAL FUND'S COMMUNITY, RIGHTS AND GENDER TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM?

The Global Fund's Community, Rights and Gender Technical Assistance (CRG TA) Program provides support for civil society and community groups to meaningfully engage in Global Fund processes during country dialogue and concept note development. Specifically, the aim of the CRG TA program is to ensure that people who are affected by the three diseases can play a meaningful role in Global Fund processes and ensure that grants reflect their needs.

EXAMPLES OF TA THAT THE GLOBAL FUND CRG PROGRAM DOES PROVIDE:

- Design, plan and implement a consultation process to identify key and vulnerable population priorities for concept note development.
- Designing and budgeting for community systems strengthening programs as part of the grant-making process.
- Facilitating a concept note review among youth organizations to identify gaps and propose appropriate interventions for inclusion.

EXAMPLES OF TA THAT THE GLOBAL FUND CRG PROGRAM DOES NOT (CURRENTLY) PROVIDE:

- Strengthening Country Coordinating Mechanisms (CCMs)
- Long-term capacity building of civil society organizations
- Concept note writing

You can request this TA if you are a civil society organization or community group working on Global Fund issues. The TA is provided on a peer-to-peer model, meaning you will receive support from fellow non-governmental organizations – including key population networks, universities and civil society organizations – that have been pre-selected through an open tender process for their demonstrated skills and capacities on community, rights and gender competencies.

For more information on the Global Fund Community, Rights and Gender Technical Assistance Program, follow the link below to download a 3-page overview:

Technical Assistance Program on Community, Rights and Gender - An Overview

The following list is of TA providers that have been pre-approved by the Global Fund to provide this peer-to-peer TA in the Anglophone African region.

HOW DO I ACCESS TA?

TA should be demand-driven, so it is up to you to reach out and request support from those who are offering it. Be proactive! Below are links for TA request forms to apply for support from the Global Fund CRG TA Program:

To Apply: CRG Technical Assistance Request Form

Requests should be submitted using this form and should be sent via e-mail to: crgha@theglobalfund.org

If you need some help filling in the form, follow the link below for guidance:

Guidance on filling in the CRG technical assistance request form

If you want to discuss your idea first, you can start a conversation directly with the TA providers listed above to get more information on what kind of help is available for the problem you have identified.

To help you get started, here is a sample introductory email you can use to start the TA conversation!

Alternatively, you can also write directly to us at the Regional Platform (eannaso@eannaso.org) to tell us about your TA needs and we can help link you with the right provider. That is our role! See our contact details on the back of this directory.

Get in touch with us!

Dear TA provider,

I recently learned that you are on the Global Fund's list of pre-approved technical assistance providers to support the meaningful inclusion of community, rights and gender aspects in Global Fund processes. I would like to learn more about what kind of technical assistance you provide and how I might be able to access this support.

The Regional Platform for Communication and Coordination for Anglophone Africa, hosted by EANNASO, suggested I reach out to you to start a conversation. We are currently working on (briefly describe your Global Fund-related work. 1-2 sentences) and are seeking support to do (briefly describe your TA request. 1-2 sentences)

We look forward to discussing this with you further.

Warm regards,
(Your name and organization)
