A Community Guide to the Global Fund's Strategy 2017-2022

Greetings from the Regional Platform for Communication and Coordination for Anglophone Africa, hosted by EANNASO!

At the 35th meeting of the Global Fund Board (in April 2016), several important new documents were formally approved and adopted. As your Regional Platform, we are committed to ensuring that you have an opportunity to learn about these new policies and strategies in simple and accessible formats.

Over the next four weeks, we will be releasing a series of community guides which summarize and simplify these new policies and strategies from the Global Fund, emphasizing which parts are important for us to know about, and how we can further engage. First up – the Global Fund's new strategy!

A Community Guide to the Global Fund's Strategy 2017-2022

The first community guide is a basic introduction to the Global Fund's new strategy for the period 2017-2022.

In this guide you will find:

- The four overarching strategic objectives for the Global Fund over the next six years
- A complete list of the sub-objectives, with clear explanations of what they mean and why they matter for us
- Important targets for key and vulnerable populations as well as women and girls

This community guide is available in two languages:
